THE MINNESOTA STATE CAPITOL FURNISHINGS PROJECT

The Cass Gilbert Society is on the hunt for missing, original furnishings from the Minnesota State Capitol. We are collecting photographs and tracing stories of items that capture Gilbert's legacy and his design for our Capitol Building. This initiative aims to connect the public with the Capitol through the stories of lost and found items: furniture, light fixtures, building fragments, and interior photographs.

Have a story to tell? Own an item from the Capitol? Visit our website, find us on Facebook, or get in touch with Project Manager Natalie Heneghan.
